D. L MUSSELMAN, Pres., Quincy, Illinois,

According to the Sumner Star, talk of the "spooks" that is said to frequent the old orchard between Sumner and Cunningham has had a tendency to reduce night travel between the two towns. One young man, who has a sweetheart in the other town, is said to carry a regular arsenal when he goes sparking. He ought not to load himself down that way, for a man has no use for any extra weight when he engages in a foot race with a ghost.

A warrant charging assaut with intent to do bodily harm was served upon Tom Farmer step-daughter, a girl of 15. She

The village bastile at Sumner is so neat and clean and comfortable that the Star thinks confinement therein would positively be a luxury to some people. So if you are not "good" when you go to Sumner you will doubtless be given an opportunity to 'luxuriate' in the calaboose.

When a man is determined to rise in the world, it is better not to stand in his way. If his purpose is right, he will be a dangerous wrestler.
